

Class - VII Subject - Biology

Chapter - 3. Classification of Animals.

Teacher - Ms. Nidhi Rana

Good Morning Students! Hope all of you have well-engrossed the content of the chapter. So, today we are going to revise the chapter.

1. Give one word for the following :
 - (a) The animals that do not have a backbone.
 - (b) The group of animals bearing pores on their body to draw water into the body cavity.
 - (c) Finger-like projections around the mouth of hydra.
 - (d) Special organs for excretion in annelids.
 - (e) Animals with jointed legs belong to this group of invertebrates.
 - (f) The type of symmetry in which the body can be divided into two identical halves along any plane.
 - (g) Respiratory organ in fishes.
 - (h) Frogs and toads belong to this group of vertebrates.
 - (i) The class of vertebrates in which organisms give birth to their young ones.
 - (j) Starfish belongs to this group of invertebrates.
 - (k) The unicellular organism causing malaria.
 - (l) Organisms belonging to this group have body covered with feathers and have wings for flying.

Class - VII Subject - Biology Chapter - 3.

Teacher - Ms. Nidhi Rana

Q2. Give any two examples of animals belonging to following groups or phyla.

- (a) Platyhelminthes
- (b) Molluscs
- (c) Echinoderms
- (d) Annelids
- (e) Arachnida

Q3. Write any two characteristic features of the following:

- (a) Mollusca
- (b) Porifera
- (c) Pisces
- (d) Nematoda.

Q4. Name the phylum to which following organisms belong:

- (a) Ascaris
- (b) Leech
- (c) Electric ray
- (d) Tortoise
- (e) Snail.
- (f) Sea urchin.
- (g) Sponge.
- (h) Hydra